Liz and Kent Gilges are the proud parents of six children. Their daughter Elie was diagnosed with a brain tumor when she was nine months old. She was given six weeks to live. By the grace of God, Elie lived ten years, touching the lives of many people including Pope John Paul II. Elie, who never spoke, was Kent's bridge to Jesus, as he eloquently writes in his book "A Grace Given". Kent was an agnostic until he entered the Church five years after she died. Together Liz and Kent have come to see that everything is grace, even the death of a child. They want to share their story to illustrate how God's hand orchestrated it all.
